son of God now is born.

2. Set upon the table all your finest linen.
3. Bring us out some bread now, warm and brown and crusty.
4. Celebrate the season: three great feasts together.
5. First the feast of Christmas, birth of our king Jesus.
6. Next the feast of Basil, saint from Cappadoccia.
7. Then the feast in January* of our lord's Epiphany*
8. First the feast of Christmas brings us consolation.
9. Next the feast of Basil brings sweet jubilation.
10. Finally, Epiphany reminds us of our destiny.

* sing as Jan-u-ary and E-pi-ph'ny
